

Cowboys and Kids come together to make the all new McDonald's PreShow fun for the fans and a success for Ronald McDonald House Charities of the Quad Cities.

There were a lot of winners at the iWireless Center in Moline. Fans were treated to an evening of MORE Fun compliments of McDonalds at the hugely successful Cowboy's For Kid's Preshow. Three Hills Staff, World's Toughest Bulls and Broncs cowboys and cowgirls and Ronald McDonald himself hosted a fun pre-rodeo charity event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House Charities of the Quad Cities and raised money through the sale of "Rowdy Rags" bandanas.

The action was intense at the first event in the Three Hills' series sanctioned by World's Toughest Bulls and Broncs. It was a Grand Slam for the 2008 Champions as all three turned back to back appearances in the Bonus Round. Tim Wilkinson was the only one to take home a double win in the Bonus Round with two 90 point rides... first night on NFR Bareback Horse E12 Goin' South and up and the lucky E6 Shamrock. Andy Carter tested Tim both nights also making it to the Bonus Round each night. The Saddle Bronc riding mixed it up with Wade Yost winning the Bonus Round in the first Performance and Bobby Griswold winning second with an 88 point ride on Touchdown. Justin Kennedy qualified for Bonus Round both nights as well with an 88 point win in first performance on Chopper. Curt Check took the second paycheck with a great 92 point ride on Skunk Juice.
